You can alternatively return this form to Far North District Council via email and supply copies of your documents and plans as email attachmentst, if required.

Important Note: Pre-application meetings are intended to provide initial advice on specific issues identified for discussion by the applicant and any likely major issues. It cannot replace the in-depth investigation normally associated with the formal assessment of an application and consideration of public submissions. While the advice is given in good faith, it in no way binds a decision of the Council. Any information offered during the pre-application process does not pre-empt the normal resource consent assessment and decision making process.
